Hello Lindley families,

Hope you are having a great summer. We will be sending a more detailed letter very shortly but we wanted to answer a few questions that we have been receiving more frequently.

No, families do not need to purchase any school supplies except for bookbags. Bookbags will be available at the Back to School Bash on August 25th while supplies last.

Yes, this year we are strongly adhering to the uniform policy which is outlined in our student handbook. Here is a reminder of the policy for each grade level. The uniform policy is:
