- Free transportation to and from a student’s school of origin
- Free school meals
- Free school uniform and school supplies

Delegation of Responsibility

The Board of Trustees of the School directs the Chief Executive Officer to designate a Liaison (McKinney-Vento Liaison) for homeless students and their families to protect their rights and to implement this policy. Upon recommendation of the Chief Executive Officer, the School may waive school policies and administrative procedures which may create barriers to the identification, enrollment, attendance, transportation, school stability and success of students experiencing homelessness. Confidentiality must be maintained.

The McKinney-Vento Liaison has the following responsibilities:

- Identify homeless students and unaccompanied youths;
- Ensure that homeless students and unaccompanied youths have full and equal opportunity to participate in all applicable school programs, academic and extracurricular;
- Identify and assist in removal of barriers to success in school for homeless students and unaccompanied youths;
- Ensure school stability for homeless students and unaccompanied youths by allowing continued enrollment at the School, upon presumption that remaining at their school of origin is in their best interest, or deciding the matter upon a best interest determination;
- Ensure immediate enrollment of new students who are homeless or unaccompanied youths with provision of instruction, if enrollment is sought at the School, pending a best interest determination -- even if documentation ordinarily required for enrollment is incomplete, in which case assistance must be given for obtaining enrollment documents;
- Assist in obtaining academic and relevant records from the school where the student attended prior to becoming homeless;

- Assist students and youths who do not have immunizations or immunization or medical records to obtain necessary immunizations or medical records;
- Arrange transportation to and from the school of origin as necessary to ensure school stability;
- Ensure that unaccompanied youths and families of students experiencing homelessness have access to and receive educational services for which they are eligible, and referrals to services for health care, dental, mental health, substance use, housing and other appropriate services;
- Inform parents/guardians of the educational rights and related opportunities available to their children, and provide them with meaningful opportunities to participate in the education of their children;
- Ensure that school selection or enrollment disputes are handled in accordance with Dispute Resolution procedures promulgated by the Pennsylvania Department of Education;
- Inform unaccompanied youths and parents/guardians of students experiencing homelessness about their right to disagree with the school's decision and how to challenge it.

The McKinney-Vento Liaison shall coordinate with:

- Local service agencies that provide services to students and families experiencing homelessness and unaccompanied youths;
- School districts regarding issues of records transfer, per pupil allocation, transportation and special education programs to ensure that homeless students and unaccompanied youths who are in need of special education and related services are located, identified and evaluated; and
- State and local housing agencies responsible for comprehensive housing affording strategies.

The McKinney-Vento Liaison is responsible for supporting and educating others regarding McKinney-Vento compliance requirements, including professional development for school personnel. This responsibility also includes dissemination of public notice of educational rights of students experiencing homelessness and unaccompanied youths in places such as schools, shelters, public libraries and soup kitchens; such notice shall be provided in a manner and form understandable to parents/guardians and unaccompanied youths.

The McKinney-Vento Liaison will be responsible for creating processes necessary to effectuate McKinney-Vento compliance, and is directed to utilize appropriate and applicable forms and procedures promulgated by the Pennsylvania Department of Education.

Best Interest Determination

The School ensures that the best interests of students and families experiencing homelessness and unaccompanied youths are primary considerations. This means that homeless students and unaccompanied youths shall remain at the School, unless it is determined that it is not in their best interest to remain at their school of origin.

The best interest determination is completed by the School if it is the school of origin. In case of disputes, PDE's Dispute Resolution procedures shall be followed.
